

Wise up to water safety

#splashsafely

Never leave a child unattended around water.

A child can drown in just a few inches of water within seconds, often silently and without a splash.

Tragedies can be prevented – always watch children around water.

