

Reducing Parental Conflict Training

Free 1 Full Day Face-to-Face Training

10am-4pm

Due to remand the Healthy Relationship Team are excited to announce an additional 3 final Reducing Parental Conflict training sessions.

This training is specifically designed for practitioners who work directly with families on a regular basis who are facing parental conflict within their relationship. The training is based on a toolkit of resources that should only be used with parents/carers experiencing conflict between each other and their family.

Arrive from 9:30am for a 10am start.

Barleylands Farm, The Village: Wednesday 20th November 10am – 4pm

Function Room 1, The Village at Barleylands Farm, Barleylands Road, Billericay CM11 2UD

2 further dates and venues TBC for early December.

If you would like to be considered for this training, please complete the expression of interest form and highlight your preferred quadrant. We will put you on a waiting list and contact you once dates & venues have been confirmed.

Please be aware that you will need to attend the full days face to face training as well as the online 2-hour consolidation session to complete the training.

This training is specifically for practitioners working and supporting families within Essex and does not cover Southend and Thurrock

To book please email:
healthyrelationshipsteam@barnardos.org.uk
with your completed expression of interest form.